

The Assistant Pastor

May, 1930

A Provisory Subscription

Undersigned herewith agrees to give the sum set opposite his or her name, in one or more or in five yearly installments, beginning April 1, 1930, towards the payment of the entire legal indebtedness of Bethany College, Mankato, Minn., amounting to $61,989.83.

It is understood that the payments shall be made to a treasurer chosen by the undersigned donors and shall by him be deposited in a bank or banks or as otherwise designated by said donors. Such money shall bear the highest possible rate of interest. All interest accruing from said money shall, every six months, be sent to the treasurer of the Norwegian Synod of the American Evangelical Lutheran Church with instructions that same be used for paying interest on the interest bearing indebtedness of above named College.

Five years after April 1, 1930, and not later than June 1, 1935, the total amount of money resulting from this subscription, shall be turned over to the treasurer of the above named Synod, provided, that said treasurer and Board of Regents of said Bethany College can at that time, or before, make bona fide statement that sufficient money is immediately available to pay all bonded and other legal indebtedness of the institution above named, and that such payment will take place as soon as the proper observance of required legal formalities will allow.

If on or before June 1, 1935, cash sufficient for the purpose just named, and subject to the immediate call of said treasurer, is not at hand, the money herewith subscribed and actually paid in, shall be returned to the respective donors without interest.

Any eventual surplus is to be credited automatically to the Church Extension Fund of above named Synod.

BAPTISMS

Norma Joyce, a daughter of Ned Borlaug and wife Nettie, nee Oleson, born March 7th, baptized April 13th. Sponsors: Mr. and Mrs. Martin Borlaug, Norman and Palma Borlaug.

Walter Randolph, a son of Karl C. Johnson and wife Anna, nee Sanderson, born April 7th, baptized May 4th. Sponsors: Mr. and Mrs. Ole C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Sanderson.

CONFIRMATION

April 13th the following were confirmed in the Saude Church: Theodora Anderson, Palma Borlaug, Hilda Hanson, Elna Tjernagel, Lillian Vaala, Omer Ellingson, Davis Natvig, Joseph Vaala.

The pastor may have had as good a class before but never a better one. Every member of the class took pride in coming to class with lessons well prepared. No one tried to get by with work half done.

In any contest, a game of ball or a race, the friends of the contestants cheer them on and encourage them as best they can. These eight young friends have entered the race for the Crown of Life. Let us all do whatever we can to help and encourage them that they may win. What a terrible crime if any one should lay stumbling blocks in their way!

DEATH

April 12th death, for the first time, entered the S. S. Roberson home. It chose not a puny child or a worn out elderly person but a robust, strong youth, Clarence Arthur, the third of Mr. and Mrs. Roberson's seven children.

Clarence was born June 27, 1911, and baptized July 23. June 7, 1925, he was confirmed. March 31st he submitted to an operation for appendicitis at the Elma hospital. April 12th he died and was interred the 14th.

Dear young friends, you are again reminded that youth is not exempt from death.

June 12-18 our Synod's annual Convention will be held at Bethany College, Mankato, Minn. The distance from the parsonage to Mankato is 156 miles. The shortest route is via Albert Lea, Waseca and Janesville. The road is good all the way. There will be no services in our churches on Synod Sunday, the 15th. We hope that many will try to be present at the Sunday festivities at Bethany College.
